*What some of the critics are saying about Barbara Blues'
Fish in Dirty H<sub>2</sub>O:*

"Blue is a very strong singer, although I would rate her a notch below (KOKO) Taylor and (Katie) Webster ..... she has produced a striking recording"
(Rhys Weinstock/Jazz & Blues Report)

"This is someone who has paid the dues and more than deserves a listen. This is someone you can take seriously -- she has both a unique way of saying what she has to and she makes it sound great." (Bob Gottlieb/No Depression)

"Beale Street's undisputed Queen. It just may be the best release of her career to date. Start to finish, this one is pure magic."
(Greg Johnson/Cascade Blues)
