

GENERATION BLUES

Generation Blues Youth Scholarship Application Form

The Blues Foundation expanded its longstanding Blues in the Schools youth education efforts with a new initiative that began in 2010 entitled Generation Blues. This scholarship program allows qualified applicants under the age of 21 to study their instrument of choice at reputable blues camps, seminars, and workshop programs.

Thank you for your interest in participating in the Generation Blues Youth Scholarship program. Please read the instructions carefully prior to submitting your application. The deadline for application for the 2020 Summer Season is March 31, 2020.

Complete the attached Generation Blues Youth Scholarship application in its entirety.

Once you have completed the attached Generation Blues Youth Scholarship application, the following items are required to be provided along with your application.

- An essay, in 400 words or less, describing how blues music inspires you, why you want to study blues music, why you wish to attend this particular workshop/camp/seminar, what you plan to gain from the experience, and how critical the Generation Blues funding is to making your participation possible
- A letter of recommendation from someone other than a parent (i.e. teacher, musician, etc. not affiliated with workshop/camp/seminar attending)
- Your music education to date
- Your music performance(s) and experiences

All Generation Blues applicants are required to be Youth Members of The Blues Foundation, a no cost membership. In addition, we will maintain your free membership with The Blues Foundation until you turn 21 years of age. Parent(s) of Generation Blues applicants are also required to be members of The Blues Foundation to show their commitment to supporting the applicant's desire to study blues music.

Your application will not be considered by the Generation Blues Committee unless all required information is included with your application submission.

Submit your completed Generation Blues Youth Scholarship application no later than March 31, 2020 via email to Keisha Moore-Alston, keisha@blues.org. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact her at The Blues Foundation via the above e-mail address. She can also be reached by phone at 901-527-2583 ext. 10.

By submitting your Generation Blues Youth Scholarship application to The Blues Foundation for consideration, you certify all information is true and correct to the best of your knowledge.
